That the Board of Pension Appeals will be materially decreased or perhaps wholly abolished, is predicted by those who are in a position to know what they are talking about.

cent is on the increase. Statistics show that each man on the board of pension appeals is required to pass upon a small fraction over eight cases monthly. During July and August pastn 879 cases were submitted to the board. In September 913 cases were appealed, and in October 940 cases came before the board for action.

Decisions Reversed.

In the July cases the decision of the Pension Commissioner was reversed in 14 per cent of them. Thirteen per cent of the August cases and 7 per cent of both the September and October case were reversed. Last year the percentare familiar with the board's work that it could be abolished without any trouble. The work which the board really does is work that could be done more expeditiously and to a better advantage at the Pension Office. The complete records of each and every case are on file there, and the matter of reopening a case and of making further adjudication could be accomplished with practically no expense whatever.

Asked if he was advocating the move to abolish the board, Commissioner Warner said: "I have nothing to do with the board, either in its work or personnel. The work, however, I think, could be satisfactorily handled here but it's all a matter for Secretary Hitchcock to handle."

Others, however, say that the change is bound to be effected. The board simply covers the ground already thoroughly gone over at the Pension Bureau, and in keeping abreast of the Keep commission's reform ideas this item of sion's reform ideas this it $97,020 can be very easily saved.

CHAFFEE PREDICTS WAR FOR UNITED STATES

Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, in an interview published in the Army and Navy Journal yesterday, says that sooner or later the United States will have to fight abroad to maintain its rights.

This statement was made in refer-ence to the present military situation. Few people in the United States, he said, realize the seriousness of the

"There is little danger of any nation attacking the United States," he says, "but there is great danger, I think, of the United States being embroiled in South America or in China.

"We need more infantry," he contends, "about twenty-four regiments, in fact, to make our mobile army what it should be, but, of course, I am not now recommending that Congress be asked to increase the army along this line."

DR. WHITNEY RESIGNS.

At his own request, the District Commissioners have accepted the resignaphysician at the Washington Asylum. Dr. Whitney's term expired November His successor will be appointed within a few days.
